01 2001 – Present

I have been developing my personal web located at www.sashadesign.com

SashaDesign.com is a fully dynamic data-driven modern web page that reflect the ever increasing usage of standard XHTML and CSS 2 to deliver higher fidelity web pages. It is laid out using CSS positioning as opposed to tables.

During this period of time I have been involved in two other projects:

www.cluedesign.com
www.designcity.org - new design community for professionals

Education

Computer Science - York University, Toronto Ontario
Multimedia Designer Certificate – SAE Institute Berlin

Other Information

- I fluently speak four languages: English, German, Italian and Serbo-Croatian.
- I am a passionate chess player (among top 100 on Canadian Chess rating list).
